

The Honorable Michael K. Powell
Chairman
Federal Communications Commission

Dear Chairman Powell:

As a customer of DIRECTV, I am writing to urge you to support the pending merger of EchoStar and HUGHES, the parent company of DIRECTV. I believe the merger will increase video and broadband choices for consumers like me.

The combined company will be a much stronger competitor to cable operators by being able to offer me a substantial number of local TV channels via satellite in my market area. I am really hoping this will go through because I have purchased DirecTv systems for my family members in the Corralitos (95076) area and they are not able to get any locals on the system now and because of where they live they cannot see locals at all via antenna.

I currently have broadband access to the Internet, but the combination of EchoStar and HUGHES will result in increased competition in the broadband market by providing an affordable high-speed Internet service nationwide via satellite.

I appreciate your consideration of my views.

Sincerely,

Jason Silva
